

NIHR ARC South London: Active Involvement in Research 2022

Wednesday 29 June, 6-8pm | Chair: Natasha Curran and Rashmi Kumar

Theme: The impact of Covid-19 on involvement – what has changed?

Agenda

6.00pm	Opening Natasha Curran
6.05pm	Welcome Rashmi Kumar and Savi Hensman
6.15pm	Presentation 1 Empowering better end of life dementia care: patient and public involvement during the Covid-19 pandemic Catherine Evans and Jane Ward
6.30pm	Presentation 2 Why and how research matters from communities' perspective Beverley Randall in conversation with Savi Hensman
6.45pm	Questions and answers Chaired by Rashmi Kumar All
7.00pm	Breakout groups All

Discussion questions

1. From your experience during the pandemic, what key things have you learnt which might strengthen health and care research, and involvement?
2. From this learning, what are the implications for involvement in health and care research, and more generally for ARC South London's research moving forwards?
 - (i. What would you like to keep?, ii. What would you like to change?, iii. Are there new possibilities?)

7.40pm	Feedback Natasha Curran All groups
7.55pm	Next steps and close Rashmi Kumar All

Speakers

Natasha Curran
implementation and involvement lead; medical director of Health Innovation Network

Rashmi Kumar
Involvement Advisory Group Chair; trustee of Lambeth Patients and Public Participation Group

Savi Hensman
involvement coordinator; member of Service User Research Enterprise

Beverley Randall
executive and board member; associate programme director, Mosaic Clubhouse

Catherine Evans
professor of palliative care, Cicely Saunders Institute, and honorary nurse consultant

Jane Ward
patient and public involvement chair for Empowering Better End of life Dementia Care (EMBED-Care) programme